Unless the premium, if any, indicated on the reverse side, is paid to the Company before the expiration of the grace period as specified in your policy contract, the policy will be void except as otherwise provided in the policy or by statute.

This Policy Notice does not waive any overdue payment.

The items shown on this Policy Notice are applicable as at the Due Date if the policy is then in force. The information supplied is based on our records. If there is any point that is in disagreement with your own records, or you have any inquiry about the information supplied or otherwise, please contact our Client Service Department.

Loan principal or interest, if any, does not take into consideration policy loans or repayments or premiums advanced by automatic premium loan not recorded at the Company's Head Office at the time this notice was prepared.

A cheque or draft will constitute payment only after being honoured on presentation.
